Firestarters: 100 Job Profiles to Inspire Young Women

Kelly Beatty, Dale Salvaggio Bradshaw

BOOK ---- This book describes interesting professions and fascinating new careers in an informative and positive format. The authors have interviewed 100 strong women, most in their 20s and 30s, about their exciting and sometimes nontraditional jobs. These women share insights on their careers, such as what their jobs involve; what they like and dislike most about their work; what education, experience, and characteristics it took to get them where they are; and advice to young women who might want to follow in their footsteps. The book features five important themes: balancing life and career, being independent, finding enjoyable work, not worrying about what others may think, and getting a degree. It includes definitions of key new terms, sidebars... Indianapolis, IN, JIST Works, 2006.

In Pursuit of Equity: Women, Men, and the Quest for Economic Citizenship in 20th-Century America

Alice Kessler-Harris

BOOK ---- The author explores the transformation of some of the United States' most significant social policies. Tracing changing ideals of fairness from the 1920s to the 1970s, she shows how a deeply embedded set of beliefs, or "gendered imagination" shaped seemingly neutral social legislation to limit the freedom and equality of women. Law and custom generally sought to protect women from exploitation, and sometimes from employment itself; but at the same time, they assigned the most important benefits to wage work. Most policy makers (even female ones) assumed from the beginning that women would not be breadwinners.
